HISTORY

CODE: HIS 213

TITLE: Genocide

DIVISION: Liberal Arts

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course presents the history of intolerance and bigotry through an analysis of genocide. Human rights violations and challenges to social justice will be analyzed and students will witness how such consequences lead to acts of atrocity. Recognition and prevention will be discussed through issues of conscience, ethics, and moral responsibility. Students will participate in independent and collaborative activities while surveying and analyzing the history of genocide (from Namibia and Armenia to Rwanda and Darfur).

- ▶ Speakers: Representatives from various related fields may be invited to speak.
- ▶ Videos: Related topics will provide impetus for discussion.

EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY:

Rowan College at Burlington County advocates a technology enhanced teaching and learning environment. Advanced technological tools may be used in any course section to facilitate instruction. Many of our sections are web-enhanced, which means that some of your work will be submitted or completed online. Web enhancements may include on-line materials, grade books, testing and quizzes and assignment submission. Many students enjoy the flexibility and convenience that these online enhancements have provided, however if you have concerns about the technology involved, please speak to your instructor immediately.

STUDENT EVALUATIONS:

The student will be evaluated on the degree to which student learning outcomes are achieved. A variety of methods may be used such as tests, quizzes, class participation, projects, homework assignments, presentations, etc.

See individual instructor's course handouts for grading system and criteria (point value for each assessment component in course, e.g. tests, papers, presentations, attendance etc.), number of papers and examinations required in the course, and testing policy including make ups and/or retests.
