DEI Insights Looks Forward to Summer

Now that the Spring 2023 semester is coming to a close, DEI Insights will spend the summer reinventing itself. The PACDEI has spent this academic year collecting data on Barons' experiences at the college, their perception of our college climate, and more. We intend to infuse our next steps, including our upcoming annual and strategic plans, into upcoming newsletter content. As we continue to process data and effect change here on campus, look out for progress updates here in this monthly newsletter!

News & More Continued

Our Final DEI Climate Survey Report is Now Available!

After launching three surveys in October 2022 to RCBC faculty, staff and students and waiting for the data from those surveys to be analyzed, we are finally able to share the final survey report with the RCBC community!

This report will be posted on our DEI website at rcbc.edu/diversity, alongside coded data from the breakout sessions at Dr. Cioce's Welcome Back event that occurred on February 24, 2023.

Take some time to read through our community's feedback that will help drive the PACDEI's efforts moving forward.

Congratulations, Graduating Barons!

RCBC's PACDEI acknowledges that getting to graduation is a triumph enough, but particularly for those who come from marginalized communities.

We celebrate the achievements of all of our students who have made it to the finish line and wish them the best of luck in their future endeavors!

Book

Fierce and Fearless: Patsy Takemoto Mink, First Woman of Color in Congress

by Judy Tzu-Chun Wu & Gwendolyn Mink (2022)

"The book explores the life and politics of Patsy Takemoto Mink (1927-2002), a third generation Japanese American from Hawai'i, the first woman of color in Congress and the legislative champion of Title IX. Co-authored by her daughter, political scientist Gwendolyn Mink, and historian Judy Tzu-Chun Wu, this work discusses Mink's decades-long work for women's equality, civil rights, environmental humanism, and peace."

Documentary

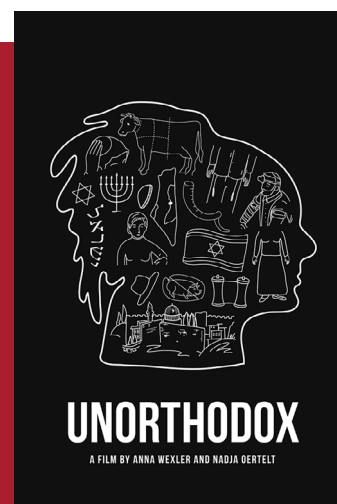

Unorthodox

(2018)

"At sixteen, Anna Wexler had broken away from her Orthodox Jewish community in New Jersey, rejecting its religious doctrine and social restrictions, and severing ties to her family. This led to her running away from home, sleeping on the streets, and experimenting with sex and drugs with friends who had also left the Orthodox world.

However, after studying in Israel, her friends had a change of heart and returned to the fold. Feeling betrayed, Anna launches a quest to understand their transformation by following three rebellious Jewish teenagers in their yearlong rite-of-passage journey from high school to Israel. Along the way, Anna is forced back to the roots of her own struggle to understand the meaning of faith and the essence of religion and identity."
