

MUSIC APPRECIATION THEORY/HARMONY

CODE: MUS 105

TITLE: Music Fundamentals

DIVISION: Liberal Arts

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course begins to explore how music is conceived and communicated through the study of musical language, notation, and construction. Primary concepts of note reading, rhythm, scales, key signatures, intervals and chords are studied, as well as basic piano skills for melodic study. It is designed for students with little to no previous music theory training.

- ▶ Videos: Related topics will provide impetus for discussion.

EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY:

Rowan College at Burlington County advocates a technology enhanced teaching and learning environment. Advanced technological tools may be used in any course section to facilitate instruction. Many of our sections are web-enhanced, which means that some of your work will be submitted or completed online. Web enhancements may include on-line materials, grade books, testing and quizzes and assignment submission. Many students enjoy the flexibility and convenience that these online enhancements have provided, however if you have concerns about the technology involved, please speak to your instructor immediately.

STUDENT EVALUATIONS:

The student will be evaluated on the degree to which student learning outcomes are achieved. A variety of methods may be used such as tests, quizzes, class participation, projects, homework assignments, presentations, etc.

See individual instructor's course handouts for grading system and criteria (point value for each assessment component in course, e.g. tests, papers, presentations, attendance etc.), number of papers and examinations required in the course, and testing policy including make ups and/or retests.
