

Never Attended (NA) Grade – Proof of Attending Course Form

The Office of Financial Aid is required to confirm student enrollment before any aid can be disbursed to a student’s account. Instructors are required to report students who have never attended courses. If a student is reported for not attending a course, it may impact their award amounts. Students are given an opportunity demonstrate their attendance prior to permanent financial aid eligibility adjustments. All resolution forms must be submitted prior to the last day of the academic term.
